PS. Mayfair Platinum has a deep smell of BS too. And my parents in law - 80 year olds in Mildura - were going to put some money with them. This seems far less than sensible to me.

The links to IPO Wealth (a likely ponzi) and to the Public Listing Company (which does shell games in penny stocks) is too ugly for words.

Marketing to elderly people in Mildura has a taint about it too.

This is speculative of course - but my spidey-sense is going off badly on this.
